Second Sunday of Advent in Year A

"PREPARING THE WAY FOR THE LORD"

In today's Gospel from Matthew, we have the appearance and the preaching of John the Baptist. His message, "Prepare the way for the Lord," states the theme for the entire season of Advent.

What is essential and truly preparatory to Jesus' proclamation of good news is John's summons to conversion of heart. The "way" that Isaiah wanted prepared in the wilderness is one that must be prepared in the wilderness of the human heart. The good news will then find a hearing when, at last, it is proclaimed.

The greatest obstacle to conversion of heart is complacency - a complacency that especially stems from privileged status, as John the Baptist tells us in today's reading: "We have Abraham for our father," and a sense that one is different from the despised outsiders - the Good Samaritan of the Gospel - and so can rest secure. Jesus will "baptise with the Holy Spirit and with fire."

That is, He will seek to catch up human lives into the fire that is God's love, communicated through the Spirit (Rom 5:5). But only hearts that are truly repentant and converted will be able to be grasped within a "baptism" of this kind. John's baptism with water is a preparatory rite of conversion, readying human hearts for the entrance of this message about God's love, the true "knowledge of the Lord" that Jesus will impart. Jesus is God's love, born in a stable at Bethlehem to a young woman who, in her "yes" to God's angel messenger, embodies the true conversion of heart and mind that is being asked of us. The German mystic Angelus Silesius puts it this way: "Christ could be born a thousand times in Bethlehem - but all in vain until He is born in me."

He means that Jesus must be reborn in our own minds and hearts during this season of Advent and every day of our lives, radiating through our living His love, kindness, mercy, forgiveness, and spirit of humble service to the world.

This conversion of mind and heart challenges us to ask: What attitudes do I need to change so that my actions and behaviour are in line with what John the Baptist says as I "make His paths straight"? The Sacrament of Reconciliation is always there for us.

Nevertheless, we must correct our relationships with others, mend ruptures, soothe frictions, face family responsibilities, work honestly, and treat people justly. Let us share our love with others through selfless and humble service. "Do small things but with great love," advise St Thérèse of Lisieux and St Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa).

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD SHALL REST UPON HIM:

A SPIRIT OF WISDOM AND OF UNDERSTANDING,

A SPIRIT OF COUNSEL AND OF STRENGTH,

A SPIRIT OF KNOWLEDGE AND OF FEAR OF THE LORD

ISAIAH 11:12

Change of Parish Mass Time - Thursday 11 December

Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS - YEAR A

Second Sunday of Advent

LET US HEAR AND RECEIVE THE WORD OF GOD

Collect:

Almighty and merciful God, may no earthly undertaking hinder those who set out in haste to meet your Son, but may our learning of heavenly wisdom gain us admittance to his company. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 11: -10

On that day: A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 71 (72):1-2, 7-8, 12-13, 17.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time,
and fullness of peace for ever.

Give the king your justice, O God,
and your righteousness to a king's son.
May he judge your people with righteousness,
and your poor with justice. R.

In his days may righteousness flourish and peace abound, until the moon is no more.
May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth. R.

For he delivers the needy one who calls,
the poor and the one who has no helper.
He has pity on the weak and the needy,
and saves the lives of the needy. R.

May his name endure forever,
his fame continue as long as the sun.
May all nations be blessed in him;
may they pronounce him happy. R.

RECENT ANNIVERSARIES:

RECENTLY DECEASED:

Second Reading: Romans 15: 4-9

Brothers and sisters: Whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of the truth of God in order that he might confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, and in order that Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will confess you among the Gentiles, and sing praises to your name."

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:
all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 3: 1-12

In those days John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness of Judea, proclaiming, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." This is the one of whom the Prophet Isaiah spoke when he said, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." Now John wore clothing of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then the people of Jerusalem and all Judea were going out to him, and all the region along the Jordan, and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, John said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruit worthy of repentance. Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. I baptize you with water for repentance, but one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

Prayer After Communion:

Replenished by the food of spiritual nourishment, we humbly beseech you, O Lord, that, through our partaking in this mystery, you may teach us to judge wisely the things of earth and hold firm to the things of heaven. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
