Reflection from Fr Cao for the

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time in Year A

In today's Gospel John the Baptist invites us to "look" at Jesus who is "coming towards us". He is the lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. We have become so accustomed to these words in every Mass that they no longer strike us. The "Lamb" gives an impression of someone who is passive, someone "meek and mild". Jesus is not that 'kind of person', but a "lamb" who is powerful and energetic and effectively "takes away" sin from our community.

Jesus is the model, the lamb whose blood was sprinkled on the door posts on the night of the Exodus. Disciples of Jesus are also "lambs" to the extent that they are ready to accept suffering. This is not to say that suffering is a value in itself. It tells us that true disciples do not stand aloof and are not afraid to make themselves vulnerable: being criticised unfairly, being disappointed in people, and being the occasional failure.

"takes away the sin of the world" is the purpose of the Lamb. It tells us that Jesus is an activist; he does not merely oppose sin in theory, he "takes it away". He does not accept sin as inevitable; he wages war against it. Jesus has a distinctive way of "taking away sin". He does it by being the "lamb of God".

As individuals and as a community we have tended to water down this aspect of Jesus' mission and our mission. For example, we resign ourselves to accepting evil on the grounds that it is inevitable and, in any case, we are powerless to do anything about it; we say to ourselves - and to others - that this is how life is and we must accept it. Sometimes, we "spiritualise" sin, saying things like "we must hate sin but love the sinner", "we pray for sinners", "we are all sinners in our own way", etc. These are all important, Christian sentiments, but in practice they are used all too often to cover up the fact that we are not "taking away" some evil in our community.

Let us be ready to accept suffering and follow the footstep of the "Lamb", and testify that Jesus, "the lamb of God takes away the sin of the world."

SCRIPTURE READINGS - YEAR A

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

LET US HEAR AND RECEIVE THE WORD OF GOD

Collect:

Almighty ever-living God, who govern all things, both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the pleading of your people and bestow your peace on our times. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The Lord said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified." And now the Lord says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honoured in the sight of the Lord, and my God has become my strength. He says, "It is too small a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 39: 2, 4, 7-10

R. Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

I waited patiently for the Lord;
he inclined to me and heard my cry.
He put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to our God. R.

Sacrifice and offering you do not desire,
but you have given me an open ear.
Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required. R.

Then I said, "Here I am;
in the scroll of the book it is written of me.
I delight to do your will, O my God;
your law is within my heart." R.

I have told the glad news of deliverance
in the great congregation;
I have not restrained my lips,
as you know, O Lord. R.

To the Church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.

He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel: John 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and remain on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

Prayer After Communion:

Pour on us, O Lord, the Spirit of your love, and in your kindness make those you have nourished by this one heavenly Bread one in mind and heart. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
