Reflection from Sr Carlene for the

Fourth Sunday of Advent in Year A

"GOD-WITH-US", EMMANUEL

Today we are reminded that encountering Emmanuel, "God-with-us", is challenging and full of surprises.

In our First Reading [Isaiah 7:10-14], Isaiah advises King Ahaz to "ask God for a sign" confirming God's faithfulness to the House of David. Ahaz, who prefers to rely solely on his allies, tries to play politics with God, and rejects the advice. Isaiah ignores the proud mutinous king and gives the sign anyway:

"It is this: the maiden is with child and will soon give birth to a son whom she will call Emmanuel, a name which means "God-is-with-us".

The message? God is present with and for his people. God overcomes the haughty through the humble. The promise has been proclaimed!

Paul in today's Second Reading [Romans 1: 1-7] declares that Jesus is the fulfilment of the promise made to the prophets. Jesus is both Son of David and Son of God, and the good news of Jesus' resurrection is good news for Jews and Gentiles (including us!). We "who are God's beloved" in Mt Druitt, are "called to be saints": we are the sign through which the world can encounter Emmanuel, "God-with-us".

Turning to the Gospel, we find that Matthew tells the story of Jesus' birth quite differently from Luke. He starts with "an account of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham." In this way he establishes that Jesus is descended from David, and that Joseph is "the husband of Mary" [Matthew 1: 2-6, 16]. Having shown that salvation history reaches its high point in Jesus, Matthew identified Jesus is the Messiah (today's Gospel, Matthew 1: 18-24). God's power is at work! God's promise, foretold in our First Reading, is being fulfilled!

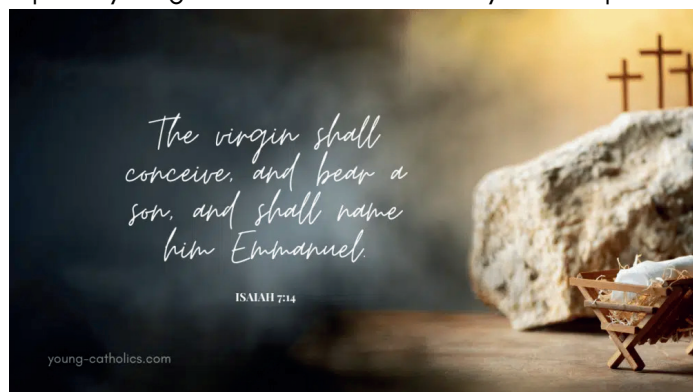

We note that Matthew puts Joseph centre-stage in the human story of Jesus' birth. We sense Joseph's dilemma when he first becomes aware of Mary's pregnancy. We hear about his plan "to spare her publicity." We then learn that he has a dream in which an "angel of the Lord" says "do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit". [Matthew 1:20].

Joseph's "honour" stands in contrast to Ahaz. He trusts the word of God's messenger, abandons his own plans and takes a huge leap in faith. He says "yes", and, like Mary, willingly gives up everything for the sake of God's mysterious plan.

May we, too, accept the challenges and surprises of life, say "yes" to whatever God asks of us, and always be conscious of the awesome truth that "God-is-with-us."

The virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel.

ISAIAH 7:14

SCRIPTURE READINGS - YEAR A

Fourth Sunday of Advent

LET US HEAR AND RECEIVE THE WORD OF GOD

Collect:

Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 7: 10-14

The Lord spoke to Ahaz, saying, "Ask a sign of the Lord your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven." But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, and I will not put the Lord to the test." Then Isaiah said: "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary the people, that you weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel."

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 23: 1-6

R. Let the Lord enter, he is king of glory.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it,
the world, and those who live in it;
for he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the rivers. R.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord?
And who shall stand in his holy place?
Someone who has clean hands and a pure heart,
who does not lift up their soul to what is false. R.

That person will receive blessing from the Lord,
and vindication from the God of their salvation.
Such is the company of those who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

As we draw near to Christmas, let us learn from Saint Joseph how to cultivate spaces for silence in which another Word can emerge, that of the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

Pope Francis

WE ASK FOR YOUR PRAYERS

BAPTISMS: We welcomed in the church, Seraphina Vaimounga, who was baptised last Sunday 14th December, 2025.

RECENT ANNIVERSARIES:

RECENTLY DECEASED: Makeleta Tu'umoto'oa, Colin McKenzie, Polly Borg, Christopher Watt, Athing Majok.

Second Reading: Romans 1: 1-7

From Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an Apostle, set apart for the Gospel of God, which God promised beforehand through his Prophets in the holy Scriptures: the Gospel concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh and was declared to be Son of God with power according to the spirit of holiness by resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through Christ we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for the sake of his name, including yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ. To all God's beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

A virgin will give birth to a son;
his name will be Emmanuel: God is with us.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 1: 18-24

The birth of Jesus the Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. But just when he had resolved to do this, an Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the Prophet: "Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God is with us." When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the Angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife.

Prayer After Communion:

May these mysteries, O Lord, in which we have participated, profit us, we pray, for even now, as we walk amid passing things, you teach us by them to love the things of heaven and hold fast to what endures. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR DECEMBER 2025

For Christians in areas of conflict.

Let us pray that Christians living in areas of war or conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation and hope.
Amen.

- BONDI TERRORIST ATTACK -

The Holy Family Parish joins with our Jewish brothers and sisters in expressing our grief and sadness for the target killing and the wounding of Jewish community members gathered last Sunday evening at Bondi beach to celebrate their religious festival of Hanukkah- the festival of light, blessings, songs, shared meals, games, gift giving. Our prayers are with those who have died and with their families. And we pray for those recovering in hospitals and their families.

We pray that our country be a safe place for all peoples and all beliefs.

Statement from Bishop Vincent on the Bondi Beach Terrorist Attack

In response to the tragic terrorist attack at Bondi Beach that struck innocent people and our Jewish brothers and sisters, Bishop Vincent has issued a heartfelt message of prayer, solidarity and condemnation of all hatred and violence. The Bishop affirms there is no place for antisemitism in Australia, calls us to pray for the victims and their families, and urges our community to stand together in compassion, hope and peace. ## Parish Christmas Carols – Thank You

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who made our Parish Christmas Carols on Saturday, 6 December such a joyful and memorable evening.

We are especially grateful to our Parish Pastoral Council for their leadership and organisation, and to our many volunteers who generously gave their time – from setting up in the heat, to cooking and serving with warm hospitality, and assisting with pack-up at the end of the night.

Our sincere thanks also go to all our performers – choirs, families, and first-time performers, especially our children who courageously shared their gifts with us. Your performances brought great joy to the community.

We warmly thank our sponsors and donors for their generosity and support, which helped make this event possible:

Mama Lana's Foundation (Penrith),
Elite Agency Real Estate (Mt Druitt),
St Vincent de Paul – Emerton Conference,
Tony Halangahu (bread rolls),
Linda Stead, and the DCJ (Mt Druitt Family Holiday Program).

Finally, thank you to everyone who attended. Your presence made it a truly special night of community, celebration, and hope found in the birth of Christ.

We invite you to join us for our Christmas Masses and wish you and your families a blessed and Merry Christmas.

Family Holiday Program Notice

We are currently renegotiating our funding contract for the Family Holiday Program, which has resulted in a delay in publishing program details. Once the contract has been approved, we will promptly promote the program. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Waiting for a Birth

Every generous act of giving,
with every perfect gift, is from above,
coming down from the Father of lights.
He gave us birth by the word of truth,
so that we would become
a kind of first fruits of his creatures.
James 1:17

Waiting through pregnancy
is a special kind of waiting.
No matter what we do
there can be no rushing.
The wonder of a new baby,
the joy of parents,
with all the new life
buried in the child's future.
This is remembered every Advent,
As we wait for the birth of Jesus.
Bless me Lord,
as I wait for your birth
renewing my life.
