First Sunday of Advent in Year A

"AWAKE FROM YOUR SLUMBER, ARISE FROM YOUR SLEEP!"

Happy New Year! It's Advent and today we begin a new liturgical year. We begin a four-week season during which we ponder:

- the FIRST COMING of Jesus in the Incarnation;
- His CONTINUED COMING into our hearts and into our world today;
- His FUTURE COMING in glory.

We take time to remember who we are as God's Chosen People. We reflect on our present relationship with God, and we repent and rejoice as we strive to look forward rather than back, endeavouring to be "awake" and "ready" at all times.

We live in hope as we listen to our First Reading (Isa 2: 1-5). This prophet survived turbulent times. Here he presents us with a glorious vision of what it will be like when the Lord comes. We, too, live in a world badly scarred by violence and war, and, heeding Isaiah's message, we need "to go to the mountain of the Lord", PRAY, AND "walk" God's path each day of our lives.

This message is continued in our Second Reading (Rom 13: 11-14). St Paul is writing to new Christians who expected Christ's return in glory to happen in their own life time. He uses contrasting images of night and day to remind them to abandon works of "darkness" and let their "armour be the Lord Jesus Christ." Following to review our lives frequently, to "wake up now".

Finally, in today's Gospel (Mt 24L 37-44) this call to "stay awake" and be "ready" is paramount. Jesus reminds his followers to be vigilant and to be prepared for the coming of the Lord. We are to do likewise, recognising His "advents" in our present-day lives and seeking His grace to move forward.

SCRIPTURE READINGS - YEAR A

First Sunday of Advent

LET US HEAR AND RECEIVE THE WORD OF GOD

STAY
AWAKECollect:

Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God, the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ with righteous deeds at his coming, so that, gathered at his right hand, they may be worthy to possess the heavenly kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 2: 1-5

The word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; all the nations shall stream to it. Many peoples shall come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths." For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. He shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 122: 1-2, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the Lord!"
Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. R.

To it the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord,
as was decreed for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.
For there the thrones for judgment were set up,
the thrones of the house of David. R.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May they prosper who love you.
Peace be within your walls,
and security within your towers." R.

For the sake of my relatives and friends I will say,
"Peace be within you."
For the sake of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek your good. R.

RECENT ANNIVERSARIES:

RECENTLY DECEASED: Evangeline Aban

Second Reading: Romans 13: 11-14

Brothers and sisters, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; let us live honourably as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Show us your steadfast love, O Lord,
and grant us your salvation.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 24: 37-44

Jesus spoke to his disciples: "As the days of Noah were so will be the coming of the Son of Man. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, and they knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away, so too will be the coming of the Son of Man. Then two will be in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. Two women will be grinding meal together; one will be taken and one will be left. Keep awake, therefore, do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But understand this: if the owner of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

Prayer After Communion:

May these mysteries, O Lord, in which we have participated, profit us, we pray, for even now, as we walk amid passing things, you teach us by them to love the things of heaven and hold fast to what endures. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION
FOR NOVEMBER 2025*For the prevention of suicide.

Let us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.
Amen.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DONNA MULLINS

We remember in prayer our much-loved and faithful parishioner, Donna, who faithfully served our parish as a Reader at the 10:30am Mass.

May the Lord, whom they proclaimed in Word and faith, now welcome her into eternal peace.

The Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, 4th December at 10:30am at Holy Family Church, followed by burial at St Mary's General Cemetery.

Your generosity is the way to open the doors of hope for the broken-hearted ensuring that no one in our community grieves alone.
